

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

CONTAINED IN THE LIBRARY
BELONGING TO
THE DEAN AND CHAPTER
OF THE
CATHEDRAL CHURCH
ELY.

ELY :
PRINTED BY T. A. HILLS AND SON, MINSTER PLACE.

P R E F A C E.

NEARLY seventy years have elapsed since a Catalogue of the Books contained in the Library of Ely Cathedral left the printer's hands. During this interval many additions have been registered, necessitating a thorough revision of the work. It has been thought advisable to deviate from the line laid down in the Catalogue of 1815, and aiming at brevity, to pursue the Alphabetical method instead of classifying the works under the various subjects which they represent. It remains to be proved which of the two may appear the more satisfactory. Such a revision is now the object of this preface.

Of the contents of the Library little need be said, except as supplementary to Mr. Botfield's remarks contained in his "Notes on the Cathedral Libraries of England" (1849.)

The "Liber Eliensis" or Manuscript containing accounts of the Translation of the Saints Etheldreda and her sisters, the Miracles and Charters, seems to have escaped his notice. This book appears to have been penned by Thomas, a monk of Ely, circa 1153, who also borrowed from the writings of Richard, a former monk. A printed copy of this MS. was issued in 1848, edited by the Rev. D. J. Stewart, a Minor Canon of this Cathedral, but the first volume only appeared.

A missal, thus described, stands at the head of the Liturgical works. "Ad usum insignis Ecclesie Saru' missale—Anno d'noe gr'e. mcccc. ii kl' Octobris," &c., folio, printed in Paris by Jehan Duprè. This volume is supposed to be unique.

A scarce little edition of the Breviarum Romanum of Cardinal Quignon, (12mo, Lugd. 1554) follows at a distance.

The bequest of the late Rev. H. H. Baber, formerly one of the Librarians of the British Museum, and afterwards Rector of Stretham in the Isle of Ely, has greatly enriched the Theological portion of the Library. Special notice must be taken of a splendid copy of the Codex Alexandrinus, on vellum, in 6 vols., eminently worthy of the carved oak case which contains it. Theological works of varied views and opinions, and treatises of every description of the later German Commentators are now to be found on the shelves. Large additions, too, from the same source, have been made to the History of Dæmonology, and the Practice of Magic and Witchcraft. The following books in this collection may be accounted as uncommon :

History of the Acts of the Apostles (Boyle Lectures) by R.
Biscoe, 2 vols. 8vo., London, 1742.

Commentary on S. Paul's 1st Epistle to the Thessalonians, by J. Phillips, 4to., London, 1751.

Life of Erasmus, by S. Knight, 8vo., Cambridge, 1726.

Mention must be made of the sad treatment which has overtaken a valuable copy of Caxton's "Fructus Temporum" with the "Chronicles of Englonde," (imprynted at London by Wynkyn de Worde 1520,) as well as the above mentioned Sarum Missal, at the hands of a modern binder. Closely cropped leaves and coloured edges can expect but scant sympathy from any bibliophile.

Since the days of Bishop Patrick (1691—1707), a former beneficient donor to the Cathedral Library, there has been a volume of the works of Dion Chrysostom (folio, Lutetiae, 1604) containing, unnoticed until the beginning of last year, the rare and valuable Autograph of the Author of "Paradise Lost." The writing has stood the test of the experts of the British Museum, and is pronounced genuine. The name "J. Milton" is accompanied by the date 1636 below, and the price "Pre 18s." above, in accordance with the Poet's usual custom.

Later liberality has added the quaint Book of Syr Tristram, or "The booke of hauking / huntyng, and fysshying, wyth all the / properties and medecynes that / are necessary to be / kepte." This little rarity is from the library of the well known Joseph Hazlewood, and bears his "ex libris."

The following have also been presented to the Library within the last few years :

Edmundi de Pontigniao "Speculum Ecclesiæ," 12mo. Paris, 1519. Very scarce.

Ludolfi de Saxonia, Vita Christi (summary), folio, a fine specimen of early printing.

S. Thomas Aquinas, Tractatus Predicandi, sm. 4to. 1483.

S. Thomas Aquinas, { Catena Aurea in Evangelium Lucæ.
 ————— in Evangelium Johannis.
 sm. 4to, Lugduni, 1520.

Lascaris Greek Grammar, sm. 4to., Vincentiæ, 1491.

Whilst regretting the absence of any "editiones principes" or other glories of the book-lover, the Dean and Chapter have, at least, cause to be thankful that, after many additions from various sources, a show of books (numbering nearly ten thousand) of considerable utility and value is presented by shelves which are rapidly becoming over crowded.

At the end of the Catalogue is appended a resumé of a larger work published in 1861, containing a list of the "Ancient Choral Services and Anthems preserved among the MS. scores and part-books in the Cathedral."

The task of editing this portion of the work has fallen upon the Rev. W. E. Dickson, M.A., the Precentor and Sacrist, to whom sincere thanks are due for readily offering his services and advice in so interesting a subject.

APPENDIX.

A CATALOGUE OF Ancient Choral Services and Anthems, PRESERVED AMONG THE MANUSCRIPT SCORES AND PART-BOOKS IN THE CATHEDRAL CHURCH OF ELY.

. The Library at Ely owes its valuable collection of Musical MSS. chiefly to the care and industry of James Hawkins, Organist of the Cathedral Church from 1682 to 1729.

At Ely, as elsewhere, the gloomy period of the Great Rebellion had been marked by a ruthless destruction of Church Music-books. Hawkins seems to have set himself, soon after his appointment, to gather together the fragments which remained, and to preserve from oblivion those compositions which could still be deciphered.

The collections which he made received additions from his successor, Thomas Kempton, Organist between 1729 and 1762; and many or most of the books have been indexed by Thomas Watkins, M.A., Precentor in 1736.

No. 1. An Organ-book : oblong quarto : bound in rough calf, probably about 1754, when, as appears from the fly-sheet, the indices were written by "T. Watkins, Mar. 25." The staves are six-lined throughout; the manuscript, for the most part, very neat and legible, the titles in the stiff Italian hand. Thorough-bass figures do not appear in this book, the actual notes of the vocal parts being for the most part arranged in short score. The book was probably commenced by John Amner, and continued by his immediate successors.

The contents of the volume consist of Anthems only, by the following composers :

Amner.	Holder.	Strogers.
Batten.	Hooper.	Tallis.
Bird.	Humphries.	Taylor.
Blackwell.	Hutchinson.	Tomkins.

No. VII. A thick volume, small folio, rough calf, lettered "Mr. Hawkins' Church Musick." This volume, containing 532 pages, is occupied entirely by the compositions of James Hawkins, and may possibly have been prepared by him for publication, as it is most carefully indexed, and many of the Anthems and Services bear marks of revisal and correction. It contains six Services and fifty-six Anthems.

No. VIII. Volume in rough calf, vellum sides, small folio, 384 pages, contains the York Litany; and Anthems in Score by

Aldrich.	Hall.	Rogers.

No. IX. A very large and thick folio volume, (eighteen staves in the page) of Organ-parts and Scores. At page 243, Hawkins has inserted "An humble imitation of the ancient way of composition, upon the famous Miserere, by James Hawkins, Organist of Ely." This is in ten parts. The "Club Anthem"—the joint composition of Blow, Turner, and Humphries—occurs in this volume. All the Composers' names have been already given, with the exception of Henman, Lawes, and Travers.

No. X. Small folio, rough calf, lettered, "Dr. Croft's Te Deum, Mr Hawkins." Contains

(1) Dr Croft's Te Deum and Jubilate in D, in Full Score for orchestra and voices.

(2) A Service in A, by Hawkins, for orchestra and voices, autograph, signed. The Service consists of Te Deum, Jub., Kyrie, Credo, Mag., and N. Dim.

(3) Three Anthems by Hawkins; one by his son, James Hawkins, junr.; one by Mundy; three by Golding.

No. XI. Small folio, rough calf, lettered, "Dr Tudway's Te Deum." Contains

(1) "Dr Tudway's Musick for the opening the Lord Harley's Chappell at Wimple." This Service is in B \flat , for orchestra and voices, and consists of Te Deum, Jub., Kyrie, Mag. and N. Dim., with two "Psalm-tunes," viz. Chants for the Psalms at Matins and Even Song.

(2) Twelve Anthems by Tudway.

No. XII. Small folio, thick, rough calf, unlettered. This volume contains the Full Score of Handel's Utrecht Te Deum and Jubilate. Hawkins has been at the pains of transcribing this fine composition twice, viz. the present beautiful copy, and one in No. 14. He spells the name thus: "Mr Hendale."

Some anthems are added.

No. XIII. Small folio, rough calf, lettered "Services in score, Vol. 1." In the handwriting of Thomas Kempton.

No. XIV. Small folio, rough calf. A duplicate copy, by Hawkins, of the Utrecht Te Deum and Jubilate, in Full Score.

On the fly-leaf, at the end, Hawkins has scribbled the following doggerel:

" Si cuique homine temerare
 " Finds fault wth this Air,
 " Who perchance never well understood one;
 " As Ben Jonson of yore
 " For his Alchimy swore,
 " So I vow again 'tis a good one."
 " J : Haw : " ¹

No. XV. A thin folio, recently rebound, containing Anthems in score.

No. XVI. A folio, similar to No. XV, containing Anthems and Services in score.

No. XVII. Small folio, half-bound calf. This is Vol. 1. of a set of six books belonging to the younger Hawkins, whose name, "James Hawkins, Junr. 1726," is written on the fly-leaf. This volume contains no fewer than seventeen of the Anthems or Motetts adapted by Dean Aldrich, very beautifully written in score with a few other compositions.

No. XVIII. Similar to No. XVII. The contents of this volume are for the most part of great interest; among them is an Anthem, imperfect however, by Weelkes; and an Anthem composed for the funeral of the great Duke of Marlborough, by Bononcini, Handel's rival.

The Services are

Barcroft's in G mi. (composed 1532.)

Child's in D mi. and ma. and in A.

Ferabosco's in B \flat .

Hawkins' in A and in D (chanting).

Lugg's in D.

Stonard's in C.

Tye's in G mi.

¹ This absurd epigram may serve to shew that already the immortal Handel had some detractors, since Hawkins feels bound to defend him.

No. XXVIII. A Tenor Part Book, small folio. This interesting MS. contains the part for the Tenor Voice of a great number of Anthems and Services, partly written in the neat stiff hand of John Amner, and continued from time to time by his successors. Amner's own compositions are generally signed, "Joh. Amner." The others have for the most part the composer's name affixed, as "Mr Bird."

No. XXIX. A Bass Part Book, similar to No. XXVIII, but containing a much smaller number of compositions.

No. XXX. An Alto Part Book, corresponding in size to the last two, but containing none of the more ancient pieces.
